

More Moe's<sup>Books</sup>

Hello All,

Can you believe that truly wonderful party on Saturday for Moe's Books 50th anniversary?? I sure hope that you were there! Moe's Books turned 50 on 7/11/09 and a great day was had by all. Hundreds and hundreds of people poured into Moe's to help us eat all the cake, dance the Hula, and remember our founders Moe and Barb Moskowitz. Hours later we had only just begun to celebrate!

After a lovely proclamation from the Mayor of Berkeley, the honorable Tom Bates, I bestowed the Mighty Schlepper award upon all of our staff past and present. Those in attendance received their certificate of merit, an ice cold selzer, and a Macanudo cigar in honor of their part of the miraculous achievement which is Moe's Books. Described by Moe as "the best bookstore in the the known Universe," the store continues in her greatness because of these incredible individuals.

To our beloved customers, we gave out posters and bags designed by Gregoire Vion and, as a special gift from our friends at Amoeba, we were able to give a CD of some of Moe's favorite music. This unexpected tribute is real treat.

On the fourth floor, the photo show, put together for the party, will stay up for a few more weeks. If you would like to add something to our archive now is a great time to bring it by.

Sincerely,

Doris Moskowitz, Moe and Barb Moskowitz's daughter
